At the present time, young Americans volunteer to enlist for military service. To maintain our present military operations, more people may be needed. Yes agree both men and women should volunteer because we got people out their dying for us. So ~~what~~^{why} should we go out and volunteer. So we can fight for our country. See if we go to the military they can teach us some ~~good~~ skill that will help use bring our ~~troops~~ troops home they are over there dying & fighting. So I want to know why we can't help them the way they helping us. Me myself I would go fight for them but I know how people don't like dying. That's why everybody should go to the military.

Score Point: 1

This response reflects fundamental deficiencies in persuasive writing skills. The writer strongly agrees that all Americans should be required to perform two years of military service and presents some key ideas to support this position (more people may be needed; people are dying for us so we should go; we can fight for our country; they can teach us some skills). However, these ideas lack development. In addition, the response is often confusing. There are moments when it seems the writer may not understand the premise (can't help them the way they are helping us; I would fight for them but I know how people don't like dying). Serious and persistent errors in mechanics, usage, and sentence structure impede communication.
